AMUSEMENTS.

AIRDOM.

Tonight is the last chance to see "The Other Mr. Smith," that splendid show at the Airdome. Last night Royce's "Kid Band" gave a concert in connection with the performance and made such a success that manager Rich has arranged with the band to give another concert at the Airdome next Tuesday night. He will again give the boys a percentage of the receipts.

AT THE PRINCES TONIGHT.
What is one of the most marvelous pictures of the southwest will be shown tonight. It is a "Selig" film entitled "Ranch Life in the Great Southwest." Characters shown are Henry Scammar, world's champion, Pat Long, champion at bull fighting, Chas. Fugate and Tom Mix. This film will be shown on tonight, Sunday and Monday nights. The Princess guarantees every picture shown to be new. Three thousand feet of films are shown nightly.

AT THE HAPPY HOUR.
The bill this week at the Happy Hour is proving a good drawing card, as is proved by the increased houses. In the five acts considerable variety prevails. The pictures are new. September 19th marks the fall opening of the season and the management says positively that Sullivan-Considine acts will be booked. New people Monday. Two shows are given nightly.

RUTLEDGE DENIES THAT KENNEDY USED HIS CAR.
George Rutledge, superintendent of the Mexico North Western with headquarters at Juarez, denies that his private car O-1 was used by the Kennedys. Mr. Rutledge said: "The statement was made in court Friday morning by Miss Maggie Briggs, a nurse, to the effect that my car was used by Mr. Kennedy. This is not true, nor did the Kennedys go over our line. My car is and has been in Juarez for some time and the Kennedys did not use it and did not go over our line. I knew nothing of the kidnapping."

Miss Letta Burnham, who has resided in California for the past five years for the betterment of her health, will arrive Monday on a visit to her father, Parker Burnham.

Miss Emily Kemp, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ralph Loomis at Cloudcroft, has returned.

Judge Benuregard Bryan has returned from Pecos and Toyah, where he has been on legal business.

Give the children plenty of El Paso Dairy milk and you will have no doctor bills.

Alaska Has Coal Famine.
Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 12.—With millions of tons of coal lying untouched in the Katalla coal fields, Juneau is in the grip of a fuel famine. The steamship companies have exhausted their retail supplies and the situation is becoming acute. The city has a small supply and is selling meager lots to those who are in greatest need.

Real bargains in show cases, counters and other fixtures. See Krakauer, Zork & Moyer at the old stand.

Don't overlook the furniture at Hotel Sheldon.

Auto Driver On Bond.
Frank Moran, released by the municipal court under $200 bond to appear on a charge of exceeding the speed limit and reckless driving, will not be tried until next week. Moran was arrested following the automobile accident at the corner of Campbell and Myrtle, in which Louis Elum suffered a broken leg and other injuries.

Dr. W. R. Weeks, chronic diseases.

Drowned in Auto.
Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 12.—C. B. Sterling, a commercial traveler of this city, and Edward L. Rowland of Anacortes, went to their deaths in the waters of the Skagit river at Mount Vernon at midnight of August 9, when an automobile in which they had started from that city for Anacortes plunged through an open drawbridge to the river 40 feet below. Nothing was known of the tragedy until last night.

El Paso Dairy milk is considered by 90 percent of the people of El Paso to be the best.

The best line ever offered in furniture at Sheldon hotel.

Just call either phone and name the particular flavor of ice cream you like best and Smith's ice cream factory will send it up.

Valley Watermelons.
If there are any nicer or better watermelons grown than El Paso valley watermelons, we have not seen them. They are very fancy and we would like to send you one.

Jackson's Sanitary Grocery, Phone 353.

Boys Held in Jail.
The five boys held by the police as members of a gang alleged to have committed a number of small burglaries, and to which, according to the city detectives, they have confessed, were committed to the county jail Saturday morning as juveniles.

COLUMBUS LANDS ARE ALL TAKEN UP

No More Land Can Be Pre-empted Near Town; Wells Are Successful.

Columbus, N. M., Aug. 12.—Most of the available land situated near Columbus, N. M., has been taken by homeseekers. A few desirable divisions remain, but it is evident that in the near future desirable entries must be secured by relinquishment or at a distance of several miles from town.

The recent rains have been of great value to this region. Cattlemen as well as those who are cultivating their land are rejoicing over the results of this rain. S. S. Birchfield is here taking advantage of the recent rains.

Thomas J. Shea has secured one of the best wells of this valley, the water being abundant and rising to within 10 feet of the surface. Other wells will be drilled by him with his rotary equipment and an artesian well is expected by residents of the valley.
